I was like, "Oh, cool, I'm okay with that," and then she proceeded to take my hand. She then pulled me over to the bar and insisted that I have a margarita. I was like, "Actually, I would prefer a beer," but I'm no snob. She then asked me if I was going to be at tomorrow's show and I responded with a shrug. I guess that means I'm not.Q: Who was the original 20/20 tagger? From time to time, someone asks a question and answers with the tag 20/20. Examples here and here. At first I thought this was some sort of meta-tag, but it seems like the actual question is "How can we get more people to use it?" and the answers are "Just post the question" (for which the correct answer is probably, "Yes, do that. And if there's any feedback, you can try it again"), and "Make sure it's in the tags box of the new question page." Who was the original poster of such questions, and what happened to them? A: I can't find any
